

PERSPECTIVE. PURPOSE. PROGRESS.

Clarity in policy. Confidence in action.

Helping businesses navigate policy, regulation and institutional complexity with informed, practical advice.

FOUNDER & CEO

Anand Vijay Jha

Anand is a former Indian civil servant from the 1998 batch of the Railway services who took voluntary retirement in 2018 after two decades in government. He subsequently served as Chief Corporate Affairs Officer at Walmart India and Managing Director at Blackstone, working across government relations and policy and regulatory risk. He currently serves as Vice President and Head of Government Affairs, India and South Asia, at Visa.

He holds an LLM in International Trade and Commercial Laws from Durham University and an MBA from FMS, University of Delhi, alongside executive education in corporate affairs at Oxford. He is establishing BVM Consulting to help businesses navigate policy, regulations and institutional complexity, drawing on his experience across government and global businesses.

HOW BVM CONSULTING CAN HELP

01 Policy & regulatory strategy

Interpret policy developments, assess implications for the business and prioritise a practical response.

02 Government & stakeholder engagement

Map institutional stakeholders and develop evidence-based positions for constructive policy dialogue.

03 Regulatory & investment risk

Bring policy, political and regulatory context into market-entry, expansion and investment decisions.

04 Corporate affairs advisory

Align corporate affairs, reputation and stakeholder priorities around the organisation's business objectives.

Understand the landscape. Shape the response.

Government perspective. Commercial understanding. Practical direction.
